Description

Introduce true Old World character to your space with this 17th century French oak and walnut cabinet, an exceptional antique that reflects early craftsmanship and timeless design. Constructed from solid oak and walnut, the piece features richly carved panel doors, intricate detailing, and a beautifully aged patina that highlights centuries of use. Raised on a sturdy base with turned legs and an open lower shelf, it offers both presence and functionality. Perfect for a dining room, entryway, or study, this rare cabinet brings history, texture, and authentic French heritage into any interior.
