Description

Add bold French character and sculptural detail to your space with this 19th century French wooden armchair, a striking piece that showcases traditional craftsmanship. The richly carved frame features ornate motifs, including a decorative crest and detailed arm supports, reflecting the artistry of the period. The sturdy construction and timeworn patina highlight the depth and texture of the wood, while the seat offers versatility for upholstery or styling with a textile. Perfect as an accent chair in a living room, study, or entryway, this French armchair brings history, presence, and timeless European charm to any interior.
