Description

This 18th Century English Walnut Armchair is a refined antique that exemplifies the elegance and craftsmanship of English seating from the period. Crafted from richly grained walnut, the chair features graceful proportions, finely turned details, and a warm, beautifully aged patina. Designed with comfort and stature in mind, its classic armchair form makes it a distinguished addition to libraries, studies, or collected living spaces. Timeless and sophisticated, this English walnut armchair brings historic depth, character, and enduring style to traditional and transitional interiors.
