Description

Elevate your collection with this exceptional 18th century French Alsace walnut commode, a beautifully crafted piece that reflects the rich regional character and skilled craftsmanship of the period. Constructed from finely figured walnut, it features a warm, luminous patina that has developed gracefully over time, highlighting the natural depth and movement of the wood grain. The clean, balanced form is complemented by classic brass hardware and thoughtfully proportioned drawers, offering both elegance and functionality. Rooted in the Alsace region's tradition of refined yet practical design, this antique commode is ideal for a bedroom, entryway, or living space—bringing history, authenticity, and timeless French sophistication into any interior.
