Description

Add timeless Baroque charm to your space with this 18th century French cherub statue, a beautifully sculpted piece that captures the playful elegance and movement of the period. Featuring a dynamic pose with flowing drapery and softly modeled features, the figure reflects the artistry and craftsmanship of 18th century French decorative arts. The naturally aged surface and patina enhance its authenticity, highlighting the texture and detail of the carving. Mounted for display, this cherub makes a striking focal point for an interior or garden setting, bringing history, character, and classic European beauty to any space.
