Description

Add architectural character and historic charm to your space with this 18th century French zinc finial, a beautifully crafted decorative element originally used to adorn rooftops or garden structures. Formed from zinc, it features a sculptural silhouette with graceful lines and ornamental detailing that reflect traditional French design. The naturally weathered surface and aged patina enhance its authenticity, giving it a timeworn, rustic appeal. Perfect for display as a standalone accent or incorporated into a garden or interior vignette, this French finial brings texture, history, and timeless Old World elegance to any setting.
