Description

Add classic French charm and functional elegance to your space with this early 20th century French wood and upholstered stool, a beautifully crafted piece that blends structure with comfort. The carved wooden frame features gracefully shaped legs and subtle detailing, reflecting traditional craftsmanship of the period. The upholstered seat, finished in a rich fabric, adds warmth and a soft textural contrast to the wood. Versatile in use, it works perfectly as a footstool, small bench, or accent piece—bringing character, style, and timeless European appeal to any interior.
