Description

This exquisite 19th Century Bleached Oak Belgian Server showcases timeless European craftsmanship with its beautifully hand-carved details and soft, natural finish. Crafted from solid oak, this antique Belgian cabinet features intricate floral and scrollwork motifs, ornate brass hardware, and a gracefully scalloped apron resting on carved cabriole feet. The light bleached oak finish highlights the wood's natural grain while lending an airy, refined elegance to its traditional silhouette. Featuring two upper drawers and spacious lower cabinetry, this versatile antique server offers both functional storage and exceptional decorative appeal. Perfect for a dining room, entryway, or living space, this 19th-century European antique effortlessly complements French country, Belgian farmhouse, and transitional interiors.
