Description

Add distinctive provincial charm to your home with this 19th century French Alsace farm settle bench, a beautifully crafted piece rooted in traditional rural design. Constructed from solid wood, it features an enclosed form with paneled sides, a slatted back, and a hinged seat offering hidden storage—combining practicality with timeless character. The naturally worn patina and visible grain reflect generations of use, adding depth and authenticity. Perfect for an entryway, mudroom, or at the foot of a bed, this Alsace settle brings warmth, function, and rich European heritage to any interior.
