Description

A striking 19th century French Baroque armchair crafted in solid carved walnut, featuring dramatic scroll arms, sculpted cabriole legs, and an ornate stretcher with central cartouche detail. Inspired by Louis XIII design, the frame showcases deep carving and beautiful natural patina.

Recently reupholstered in a neutral woven upholstery fabric with brass nailhead trim, offering a tailored contrast to the richly carved walnut frame.

A timeless statement piece ideal for a library, living room, or at the end of a bed.
