Description

Add bold, Old World character to your space with this 19th century French brass and black lantern, a striking piece that blends rich materials with timeless design. Featuring a sturdy blackened metal frame accented by warm brass details, the lantern showcases a classic architectural form with glass panels and a vented top. The naturally aged patina enhances its depth and authenticity, reflecting its historical use and craftsmanship. Perfect for an entryway, garden, or interior display, this French lantern brings texture, history, and a refined industrial elegance to any setting.
