Description

Enhance your space with the understated elegance of this 19th century French Louis Philippe mirror, a timeless antique known for its clean lines and refined simplicity. Featuring a classic rectangular form with softly rounded corners, the frame is finished in a warm gilt tone that has developed a beautiful aged patina over time. Its versatile design allows it to complement both traditional and modern interiors, whether placed above a mantel, in an entryway, or leaned for a more relaxed look. This authentic French mirror brings light, depth, and effortless sophistication to any setting.
