Description

Add architectural charm and historic character to your space with this 19th century French Neo-Gothic iron lantern, a beautifully crafted piece that reflects the elegance of Gothic design. Hand-forged from iron, it features a structured lantern top with a pyramidal roof, supported by a decorative base with scrolling details that echo classic wrought iron craftsmanship. The naturally aged patina enhances its authenticity and depth, making it both a functional lighting element and a striking decorative accent. Perfect for an entryway, patio, or garden setting, this French lantern brings texture, history, and timeless European style to any space.
