Description

Add rustic charm and authentic French heritage to your space with this 19th century French oak cutting board, a beautifully hand-carved piece rooted in traditional culinary use. Crafted from solid oak, it features an organic shape with a rich, timeworn patina that highlights the natural grain, knife marks, and wear from years of use. The surface tells a story of function and craftsmanship, giving it both character and depth. Perfect for styling on a kitchen counter, leaning against a backsplash, or as part of a curated vignette, this antique French cutting board brings warmth, texture, and timeless Old World appeal to any interior.
