Description

Add refined decorative elegance to your space with this 19th century French round wooden mirror, a beautifully crafted piece that showcases intricate detailing and classic design. The circular frame features richly carved ornamentation with layered motifs, enhanced by a warm, aged finish that highlights its depth and character. The softly timeworn patina adds authenticity, making it a striking focal point whether hung or leaned. Perfect for an entryway, mantel, or gallery wall, this French mirror brings light, texture, and timeless European charm to any interior.
