Description

Add timeless Mediterranean charm to your collection with these 19th century Spanish pottery plates, beautifully handcrafted pieces that reflect the rich tradition of regional ceramics. Each plate features hand-painted designs in classic blue and white tones, with intricate patterns and natural variations that highlight their artisanal quality. The subtle imperfections and gently aged patina speak to their authenticity and history, making every piece uniquely its own. Perfect for wall display, tabletop styling, or as part of a curated collection, these antique Spanish plates bring color, texture, and Old World character to any interior.
