Description

Add a touch of nostalgic elegance to your space with this 20th century French brass and oak telephone, a beautifully crafted piece that captures the charm of early communication design. Featuring a solid oak base paired with polished brass components, the telephone showcases a classic upright form with sculptural detailing and a warm, aged patina. Both functional in appearance and highly decorative, it serves as a unique accent for a desk, study, or bookshelf. Perfect for collectors and lovers of vintage objects, this French telephone brings character, history, and timeless appeal to any interior.
