Description

Add vintage French charm to your space with this 20th century French copper lantern, a beautifully crafted piece that blends functionality with rustic elegance. Constructed from copper with glass panels, it features a classic geometric form and a warm, naturally aged patina that enhances its character. The clean lines and sturdy construction make it suitable for both indoor and outdoor use, whether displayed on a tabletop, hung, or used as a decorative accent. Perfect for creating a cozy, ambient atmosphere, this lantern brings texture, history, and timeless European appeal to any setting.
