Description

Elegant and timeless, this 20th-century Italian Marble Top Console beautifully captures the charm of neoclassical design. The carved wooden base features ornate floral and loop motifs with a distressed finish that reveals layers of soft ivory and warm terracotta tones, giving it an aged, romantic appeal. The console is topped with a stunning partially green marble surface, adding a luxurious contrast and touch of refinement. With its tapered fluted legs and sculptural detailing, this piece serves as a sophisticated focal point for an entryway, dining room, or living area.
