Description

4 PM is an original oil painting by Mary Grace Tracy, capturing the quiet, fleeting beauty of late-afternoon light. Soft, organic forms drift across a muted ground, evoking the way shadows stretch and soften as the day slows—those in-between moments when light becomes atmosphere.

Painted in oil on canvas, the work balances abstraction and restraint, with a refined neutral palette that feels both architectural and poetic. Tracy's intuitive composition invites prolonged looking, rewarding the viewer with subtle shifts in tone, texture, and rhythm. The result is a timeless piece that feels calm, grounded, and deeply considered.
