Description

Add understated French charm to your space with this early 20th century French wooden round table, a beautifully crafted piece that balances simplicity with subtle decorative detail. Constructed from solid wood, it features a circular top with delicate inlay work at the center, complemented by a softly worn patina that highlights its age and character. The turned legs and carved edging add refinement while maintaining a light, elegant profile. Perfect as a side table, occasional table, or accent piece, this French table brings warmth, texture, and timeless European appeal to any interior.
