Description

First Glass is an original oil painting by Mary Grace Tracy, capturing the quiet intimacy of a solitary moment. A deep green wine glass stands centered against softly draped fabric, its reflective surface catching light with restraint and precision. The palette—layered greens with subtle tonal shifts—creates a sense of calm, indulgence, and pause.

Rendered in oil on canvas, the composition balances realism with painterly interpretation. The fluid folds of fabric echo the stem and bowl of the glass, creating visual rhythm and cohesion throughout the piece. Tracy's thoughtful use of light and shadow invites the viewer into a moment that feels both personal and universal—the anticipation, stillness, and ritual of a first pour.
