Description

Add bold architectural elegance to your space with this late 17th century French silver mirror, a striking piece that reflects the grandeur of early French design. Featuring a distinctive geometric frame with layered molding and projecting corners, the mirror showcases a beautifully aged silvered finish that enhances its depth and character. The timeworn patina highlights its authenticity, while the strong, structured silhouette makes it a commanding focal point. Perfect for a mantel, entryway, or above a console, this antique French mirror brings light, history, and timeless European sophistication to any interior.
