

Late 18th Century French Copper Pot (Tall)

PRICE
$420.00

ORIGIN
France

HEIGHT
20 in

DIAMETER
12.25 in

Description

Add striking Old World character to your space with this late 18th century French copper pot, a tall and beautifully hand-crafted piece rooted in traditional culinary design. Formed from solid copper, it features a cylindrical silhouette with a warm, richly aged patina that reflects centuries of use and craftsmanship. Subtle variations, wear, and tonal depth enhance its authenticity, making it as visually compelling as it is historic. Perfect for display on open shelving, in a kitchen, or as part of a curated vignette, this antique French copper pot brings height, texture, and timeless European charm to any setting.