Description

Add classic French character to your interior with this pair of Louis XIII style oak fauteuil armchairs, beautifully crafted with traditional form and timeless appeal. Constructed from solid oak, each chair features a sturdy frame with turned legs, carved detailing, and gracefully shaped arms that reflect the architectural influence of the Louis XIII period. The upholstered seats and tall backs provide both comfort and elegance, while the warm wood tones add depth and authenticity. Perfect for a living room, study, or seating arrangement, this pair brings structure, history, and refined European style to any space.
