Description

The Pelton Drink Table is a sophisticated study in contrast, blending luxurious natural stone with sleek modern materials for a striking accent piece. A substantial white marble base with soft gray veining anchors the design, while a tapered black metal stem creates a clean architectural line leading to a thick crystal tabletop that adds lightness and clarity. Perfect for styling beside a sofa or accent chair, this elegant drink table offers compact functionality with high-end appeal. Because of the natural marble construction, each piece features unique veining and variation, ensuring no two are exactly alike.
