Description

Second Glass is a richly colored still life by Mary Grace Tracy, capturing a moment that feels indulgent, familiar, and quietly cinematic. A deep green wine glass stands against softly draped red fabric, the contrast heightening the sense of warmth, ritual, and evening pause.

This high-quality giclée print on Hahnemühle Photo Rag paper preserves the depth, saturation, and painterly detail of Tracy's original oil painting. The velvety matte finish enhances the dramatic color story while maintaining subtle tonal shifts and refined texture.

Bold yet intimate, Second Glass works beautifully in dining rooms, bars, kitchens, or gallery walls—offering collectors an accessible way to bring Tracy's evocative still-life work into their space.
