Description

The design of this chest is the perfect balance between modesty and elegance. While relatively simple in shape, this piece has several eye-catching details, such as the scrollwork along the undersides and the floral motif on all three drawers. Each drawer has two intricate brass handles that have been patinaed beautifully over time. The oak wood has been carefully bleached to give this classic piece a fresh look that transcends time. This piece includes three matching keys to unlock the drawers. Circa 1900.
