Description

The 18th Century Louis XVI Carved Gilt Framed Mirror is a stunning example of neoclassical elegance and exquisite craftsmanship from the Louis XVI period. This mirror features a meticulously carved wooden frame adorned with intricate floral and ribbon motifs, all finished in a luxurious gilded gold that highlights its ornate design. The glass, likely original, is set within this opulent frame, reflecting the refined tastes of 18th-century French aristocracy. The mirror's harmonious proportions and detailed ornamentation embody the aesthetic ideals of the Louis XVI style, making it a distinguished and historically rich addition to any sophisticated interior.
