Description

This magnificent 19th-century Louis XIV reclining chair epitomizes regal opulence and masterful craftsmanship. Reflecting the grandeur of the Sun King's era, the chair features a richly carved wooden frame adorned with intricate motifs and gilded accents, showcasing the exquisite detailing synonymous with Louis XIV design. Its luxurious upholstery, though aged, still conveys a sense of sumptuous elegance, complemented by a reclining mechanism that adds a touch of modern comfort to this historical piece. Perfect for adding a royal ambiance to any living space or study, this chair is a timeless testament to French Baroque style, offering both aesthetic beauty and unparalleled sophistication.
