Description

This enchanting 19th-century French petite arched wood door is a stunning testament to the elegance and craftsmanship of its time. Crafted from beautifully aged wood, it retains its original metal hardware, showcasing intricate details that reflect the refined artistry of 19th-century France. The gentle arch of the door adds a sophisticated and timeless charm, while the preserved hardware highlights the door's authentic vintage appeal. Ideal for antique enthusiasts and those seeking to infuse their space with historical allure, this door is a perfect blend of functional design and decorative heritage, capturing the essence of French architectural beauty.
