Description

This exquisite 19th-century Provencal armchair beautifully combines historical elegance with contemporary comfort, having been recently reupholstered. The sturdy wooden frame, adorned with intricate carvings and a rich patina, reflects the timeless craftsmanship of Southern France. The recent reupholstering enhances its allure, providing a fresh, comfortable fabric that harmonizes with its antique charm. With a gracefully curved backrest and generously padded seat, this armchair is not only a statement piece but also a cozy and inviting addition to any living room or study, seamlessly blending the old-world sophistication of Provence with modern sensibilities.
