Description

This exquisite set of two 18th Century French carved wooden stained doors showcases the elegance and craftsmanship of an era long past. Meticulously handcrafted from rich, dark wood, each door features intricate floral and geometric carvings that reflect the artistry and opulence of French design during the period. The stained finish highlights the natural grain of the wood, adding depth and warmth to their appearance. These doors, with their graceful lines and ornate detailing, are a timeless statement piece, perfect for adding a touch of historic grandeur to any space.
