Description

This exquisite 1800s French Louis XVI chest of drawers brings timeless elegance to any space with its beautifully bleached finish and luxurious marble top. Crafted with fine attention to detail, the piece showcases classic Louis XVI features, including fluted legs, clean lines, and refined proportions that highlight its antique character. The bleached wood finish gives the chest a soft, contemporary appeal while preserving its historical charm, and the marble top provides both visual contrast and practicality. Perfect for adding a touch of French sophistication, this chest offers both style and storage to elevate any room.
