Description

The 19th Century Louis XV Daybed, recently reupholstered, showcases the exquisite craftsmanship of the Rococo style while offering a fresh and modern appeal. Its elegantly curved frame, made from rich, polished wood, is adorned with intricate carvings and delicate floral motifs that reflect the artistry of its era. The new upholstery, chosen for both comfort and aesthetic harmony, revitalizes the piece, blending luxurious fabric with the daybed's classic design. Ideal for enhancing the sophistication of any space, this daybed serves as a striking focal point that invites relaxation and elegance.
